

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ARIZONA ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

(Revised August 1, 1972)

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the undersigned, whose residences and post office addresses appear opposite their respective names have this day associated themselves for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona and do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is and shall be ARIZONA ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

ARTICLE II

The location of its principal place of business shall be at Phoenix, Arizona, but it may establish other places of business and other offices at such other places either within or without the State of Arizona as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE III

The objects, purposes and powers of this corporation and the general nature of the business it proposes to transact are: (a) To operate exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner as the Board of Directors may deem best, particularly for the purpose of studying and preserving the archaeology of the Southwestern United States; (b) To act as trustee of trust funds created for furthering the purposes of this corporation; (c) To buy, contract for, lease and in any other lawful ways acquire, take, hold and own real, personal and mixed property of all kinds and descriptions and to sell, mortgage, lease and otherwise dispose of the same for the purposes of this corporation; (d) To borrow money and to issue bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness and obligations from time to time, and to mortgage, pledge and otherwise charge any or all of its properties, rights, privileges and assets to secure the payment thereof for the purposes of this corporation; (e) To accept by gift, devise or bequest money, property or rights for the purposes of this corporation; (f) To establish terms and conditions of membership in the corporation; and (g) To do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of the purposes or attainment of the objects hereinabove set forth either alone or in association with other individuals, corporations or partnerships and including federal, state, county and municipal bodies and authorities and in general to do any and all things which a natural person could do or which now or hereafter may be authorized by law and in general, to do and perform such acts and things and transact such business in connection with the foregoing objects not inconsistent with law.

ARTICLE IV

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary contained, no part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

ARTICLE V

The time for the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation as required by law and the term of its corporate existence shall be twenty-five (25) years thereafter, with privileges of renewal as provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation and shall have no stock, and no dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or paid to the members or directors thereof or to any other private individual and all profits earnings shall be used to further the purposes of this corporation as herein above set forth.

ARTICLE VII

The members, officers and directors shall not be individually liable for the corporation's debts or other liabilities and the private property of such individuals shall be exempt from any corporate debts or liabilities.

ARTICLE VIII

The government of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors of not less than three (3) members. Each Chapter shall elect three (3) Directors, and one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors shall be elected annually. The Board of Directors shall elect from their numbers a chairman, vice chairman, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as they deem necessary to transact the business of the corporation. [Amended February 1, 1968; Filed February 19, 1968] [Amended March 25, 1972; Filed August 1, 1972]
