Objectives of the AAS

- To foster interest and research in the archaeology of Arizona;
- To encourage better public understanding and concern for archaeological resources;
- To protect antiquities by discouraging exploitation of archaeological resources;
- To aid in the conservation and preservation of scientific archaeological data and associated sites;
- To serve as a bond between the professional and the avocational non-professional;
- To increase knowledge and improve the skills of the members in the disciplines of archaeology;
- To participate in investigations in the field of archaeology, and put the information so obtained into publishable form;
- To publish a journal and such monographs as the Publications Committee deems appropriate.
