

The Verde Valley Chapter AAS will host the 2022 State Meeting here in Sedona on Saturday, October 29 & Sunday, October 30.

The Meeting will be held at the Sedona Elks Lodge off Airport Road from Saturday, 10 AM until after the Keynote Speaker Talk at 8:30 ish.

The focus of this year's State Meeting will be "ROCK ART OF ARIZONA . . . AND BEYOND"

The year's lineup of speakers include: (Details of their presentations will be in a follow-up Petroglyph.)

Kelley Hays-Gilpin.....Keynote Speaker
Aaron Wright.....Mini-Presenter
Neil Weintraub.....Mini-Presenter
Spence Gustav.....Mini-Presenter
Ka'miloa Chrisman....Mini-Presenter

If anyone has any Silent Auction items or Books they wish to donate, you should be at the Elks no later than 11 AM on Saturday, October 29, OR, contact Linda at aplaceinthesun@commspeed.net for a pick up or delivery. Please include a sheet on the item with what it is, value and starting bid, and who it is donated by. You will be able to purchase silent auction items with a credit card for a $1 charge. We will also have raffle prizes for cash only.

We plan to provide at least three (3) day trips on Sunday, October 30, for those who stay overnight. Thus far, we have a rock art tour by Scott Newth, and for those who wish to tour the new Archaeology Center Museum in Camp Verde, there will be a chance to see and hear about their great new facility that is finally open to the public. More details will be provided in the upcoming months, as well as the possibility to do other day trips.