GREETINGS FROM THE CHAIR

This will be the last Petroglyph until September as most, but not all, chapters pause for summer vacations. With the increase in vaccinations and the reduction in Covid-19 cases and hospitalizations, it should be possible to do much more this summer.

The Pecos Committee has just announced that they will be hosting the 2021 Pecos Conference in Mancos, Colorado in August (see below). The Arizona State Museum is planning to open on Aug. 24, and other museums are already opening to individuals and small groups with Covid-19 precautions (and masks for the un-vaccinated). In New York City Broadway shows are planning to reopen on Sept. 14. I am currently scheduling speakers for the Phoenix Chapter for the fall as either Zoom or in-person, with hopes that we will also be able to meet in-person by Sept. 14 for our first fall meeting.

Although it is too late to arrange for an AAS State Meeting for this fall, we should be able to have one in 2022. We will have to decide when and where to have it and start making plans as soon as possible. If anyone wants to volunteer to sponsor it, please let me know! 😊

ARARA 2021 CONFERENCE ONLINE JUNE 12-13, 2021

The 2021 ARARA Conference will be live-streamed and will consist of 15-minute PowerPoint presentations and 5-minute “virtual” field trips (using video format). Publication of papers will be done in the standard way, with a volume of American Indian Rock Art being distributed to members this spring and another planned for spring of 2021. For more info, go to https://arara.wildapricot.org/Conference-Info-2021.

2021 Pecos Conference in Mancos, Colorado
Thursday, August 5, 6 pm - Sunday, August 8, 4 pm

The Pecos Conference Committee announced that the 2021 Pecos Conference will be held in-person in Mancos, Colorado. They are looking forward to sharing archaeological research once again in the beautiful outdoors and their team is hard at work planning to hold the event in the safest way possible. For more info and to register, go to https://www.pecosconference.org/
CHAPTER NEWS

Desert Foothills Chapter

May 12th Zoom Meeting: Dr. Christopher Schwartz, Ph.D., talked about Long-Distance Trade Relations and Interaction Between the US Southwest, Northwest Mexico, and Mesoamerica. He looked at the topics, materials, peoples, and ideas that traveled between these regions, as well as the networks and people that facilitated their transport. This was an excellent way to end our current speaker season. Apparently, the word got out about this speaker and topic. May is typically a slow month at our chapter even with live meetings because people begin vacations and start escaping the summer heat in the Valley before it creeps up on them. Our local attendees were not overwhelming in number BUT we had several guest archaeologists in attendance (some with many books, articles, papers, and sought-after opinions on their resumes) as well as non-members from other AAS chapters and even from out-of-state. The talk did not disappoint: it covered far more ground than one might imagine from the title. Each topic covered prior opinions, current opinions, and potential future revisions or new thoughts on each topic. Dr. Schwartz has a publication coming out in the future (probably next year) including chapters by several well-known archaeologists on their own specialties.

Chapter Web News: The web address for the chapter website is the best place for evolving DFC Chapter news and updates: www.azarchsoc.wildapricot.org/desertfoothills. If you are gone for the summer, taking a vacation anytime, or unable to attend meetings; this is an excellent information source. The chapter website slide show is back up and running. PLEASE NOTE the addition of a Quick Reference Chart for coming Chapter Zoom Meetings.

Classes, Workshops, Special Events and Expanded Field Trips: Mary Kearney is the primary contact for classes, workshops, special events or trips at maryk92@aol.com and the only place to sign up or get more information. Please remember classes, workshops, and trips are open to current AAS members only with DFC members having priority. There is “no” registration on the day of the activity. There is “no” preregistration for any activity prior to formal announcement.

Please Note: There are currently “no” in-person activities currently due to Covid-19 transmission concerns.

Board Announcement: Covid-19 is still a significant problem and all in-person normal chapter activities are suspended at present. We are trying to use Zoom as much as possible to ensure a benefit to membership. Once you begin using Zoom, you will find there are many opportunities to expand your knowledge about archaeology in the Southwest, all at no cost to you. Keep your fingers crossed that Covid19 will be subdued soon, the faster the better to minimize further variant development and continued human suffering.

Little Colorado River Chapter

Our Chapter has been moderately active recently. We coordinat-ed a field trip to the Silver Creek ruins with the Agave House Chapter and two hikes to the Wenima area locally hosted by Patti Orona.

March 13th field trip to the Wenima Wildlife Area outside Springerville/Eagar: About 15 members of the Little Colorado River Chapter joined the Agave House Chapter for a short but great hike to see some petroglyphs near Woodruff and the Little Colorado River.

The Arizona Game & Fish Department manages the Wenima Wildlife Area which is within the deeply incised Little Colorado River canyon. The Wildlife Area protects the biodiversity of a scenic 2.5-mile strip of property which provides essential habitat for native wildlife, the 357-acre site includes riparian stream corridor, upland pinion-juniper grasslands and open pastures.

June 12th Sipe Ranch Hike: We also are planning a hike to the Sipe Ranch site and petroglyphs on June 12th. The Sipe White Mountain Wildlife Area is a 1362-acre property managed by the Arizona Game and Fish Department. It offers several short trails, historic and prehistoric cultural sites, and an educational visitors center. There is evidence of human habitation of this area dating from 6000 to 200 BC, which is on display in the visitors center. On one of the trails you can see the walls of a small village known as Rudd Creek Pueblo, occupied around 1225 AD. The pueblo had about 50 rooms arranged in a single-story rectangular block housing 6 to 8 families with two large kivas. The village was active for 75 years until the inhabitants likely moved north to larger villages along the upper Little Colorado River.

Phoenix Chapter News

May 11th Zoom Meeting: Local archaeologists Steve Swanson and Ryan Arp presented Creative Ways to Mitigate Sites in Cases of Limited Client Funding. They presented examples from the Greater Phoenix area where they have recently completed testing projects and explained how they integrated their results with data from surrounding projects to paint a more complete picture of the Hohokam landscape. They also discussed the techniques that they have successfully implemented on Hohokam sites using traditional archaeological testing, archival research, aerial photography and GIS-based research and their results.

Steve Swanson, Ph.D., and Ryan Arp, M.A., work together at Tempe-based Environmental Planning Group, a Terracon company focusing primarily on real estate developer and energy clients in the U.S. Southwest. Both embrace new technologies and techniques in their archaeological work and strive to improve on how archaeology is done in a way that serves the resources and clients best. Steve Swanson received his Ph.D. at Arizona State University and has been with EPG for over a decade. Ryan Arp received his M.A. from Brandeis University and has been with EPG since 2015.

Fall Meeting Schedule (either via Zoom or at PGM):

Sept. 14: Kyle Woodson, Dir., CRMP, GRIC, The Impact of Flooding on Hohokam Irrigation Agriculture
Oct. 12: Barbara Stark, Prof. Emeritus, ASU, King Cotton: It's History in Ancient Mesoamerica
Nov. 09: TBD
Dec. 14: Pearce Paul Creasman, Dir., American Center of Research, Intro to the Archaeology of Jordan

Hikes and Field Trips: If you have any suggestions, please contact Phyllis at 76desert@gmail.com or Eric at feldbrain@hotmail.com.

Rim Country and San Tan Chapters

Upcoming Events:

June 3 & 4 Homolovi and Rock Art Ranch Field Trip: Archaeologist Rich Lange will lead this Field Trip near Winslow, Arizona, following on his Zoom Presentation on May 12th. Thursday he will lead a tour of Homolovi State park including the pithouse village near the Visitor Center, then pueblo sites at Homol’ovi II and Homol’ovi I, and, conditions permitting, on to the hilltop site Homol’ovi IV and perhaps some rock art on the west side of the river. The Friday tour of Rock Art Ranch will visit some of the sites there with the climax being a visit to the deep canyon rock art panels. Follow-up options may include drive-bys at either Chevelon Pueblo or the old Mormon fort at Obed.

June: Goat Camp Excavation: Dates have been set for spring Laboratory sessions in Payson to clean, sort, and count artifacts recovered from recent excavations. Excavations will resume in the fall. AAS Members can contact Scott Wood for details and participation (jscottwood@aol.com).

Summer: Goat Camp Stabilization: Stabilization work at Goat Camp is paused for the summer. It will resume in the fall. AAS Members interested in volunteering contact Jim Britton, email jabritton@cox.net (480-390-6038).

September: Generally, San Tan Chapter and Rim Country Chapter will pause for the summer. Meetings and field trips are planned to resume in September. Members interested in volunteering to participate in helping bring these about are invited to contact Marie Britton, President of San Tan Chapter, Queen Creek (mbrit@cox.net), or Sharon DuBose, President of Rim Country Chapter, Payson (sharon@dubosecpa.net).
More CHAPTER NEWS….

Past Events:

May 12th 7 pm San Tan Chapter Zoom Meeting: Richard Lange, author of the AAS publication Down Along Paayu: The History of Homol’ovi II Pueblo, Number 43 of the Arizona Archaeologist series, presented on that very topic, something of a precursor to the June 3 & 4 Field Trip to Homolovi State Park. Homol’ovi II (H2) is one of the two largest ancestral Hopi villages just outside of Winslow. These 7 villages clustered along the Little Colorado River were founded in the late 1200s through the 1300s. Richard was employed by the Homol’ovi Research Program which conducted targeted excavations in 1983-84, from 1991-1995, and finally in 2013 and 2014. The talk discussed the general history of the Homol’ovi area, what was there before and after the Homol’ovi villages, the founding and evolution of H2 village.

May 21st Risser Ruin, Rim Country Museum, and Zane Grey Cabin Field Trip: Participants toured the Rim Country Museum with the Zane Grey Cabin, and Risser Ruin, all in Payson, followed by a group lunch for BBQ nearby. Sandy Carson and the staff showed us the extraordinary renovations of the Museum’s collections displays. If you have not visited the Rim Country Museum recently, you should. They also gave superb historical presentations and tours of the Zane Grey Cabin, an education in itself. Jim Britton, who participated in the excavation and stabilization of Risser Ranch Ruin, along with his wife, Marie Britton, President of San Tan Chapter, provided a guided a tour of Risser Ruin, including firsthand stories and comments. Risser Ruin artifacts are on display in the Rim Country Museum, which owns the site. Jim and Marie gave some firsthand comments about them as well.

Membership: Chapter Membership ensures that you will receive emails alerting you to meetings, field trips, and other events. Contact San Tan Chapter (Queen Creek) treasurer Jim Britton, email jabritton@cox.net (480-390-6038), or Rim Country Chapter (Payson) treasurer Dennis DuBose, email dadubose@gmail.com for membership information.

Buck Mountain Fire Lookout Tower Rehabilitation Project

June 6-11, June 13-18, June 20-25, and June 27-July 2, Sundays-Fridays (5 pm Sunday-noon Friday); choice of sessions. No fees. HistoriCorps and Coconino National Forest volunteer-assisted rehabilitation project on Mogollon Rim, Arizona. Arrive between 6 pm and 8 pm Sunday; daylight hours daily thereafter.

The Buck Mountain Fire Lookout Tower stands guard on the Mogollon Rim just 40 miles south of Flagstaff. Today it is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and could, with some HistoriCorps TLC, one day be opened up to the public for rent. The Rim is a celebrated destination for Arizonans seeking cooler climes during scorching southern summers. Enjoy the view on this project and know that your work will serve not only the forest’s past, but its future. High clearance vehicle is required. Tent or truck bed camping only, onsite near the lookout.

All meals, tools, training, equipment, and campsite or shared indoor lodging provided except dinner on the first night. Volunteers are responsible for bringing their own gear including reusable cloth face masks, gloves, sturdy work clothes and boots, and appropriate sleeping equipment.

For more information visit https://historicorps.org/buck-mtn-lo-az-2021/ or contact HistoriCorps at 720-287-0100 or info@historicorps.org

Mark your calendar for Oct. 27-29 for the 2021 ARIZONA HISTORIC PRESERVATION CONFERENCE

at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Tempe.

The Arizona Historic Preservation Conference boasts two full days of programming geared to professionals, with continuing education credits when available, in the fields of historic preservation, archaeology, cultural resources management, architecture, and planning as well as members of the public who are involved in historic preservation and archaeology through volunteer activities and non-profit or state and local board and commission membership.

Programming is also designed to attract elected leadership and staff of Arizona’s 22 Native American tribes, who have a special relationship to Arizona’s heritage resources. The two days of general programming is supplemented by a half-day of pre-conference workshops, for which registration is limited. The Conference also offers mobile tours of historic resources and walking tours of historic downtowns.

For more information, go to https://www.azpreservation.org/conference
Crow Canyon Archaeology Webinars

This series covers many unique topics. You can explore the history of the American Southwest from afar by viewing the full library on Crow Canyon's YouTube channel. The lectures are free although donations will be appreciated. For more info or to register, go to https://www.crowcanyon.org/index.php/learn-about-archaeology/archaeology-webinars.

June 10, 4 pm, MDT, Zoom Webinar: Perishable Artifacts in the Bureau of Land Management’s Cerberus Collection: Bringing New Meaning to Unprovenienced Archaeological Materials with Dr. Laurie Webster & Diana Barg. The BLM is working with non-Federal partner repositories across the region to curate the Cerberus Collection artifacts at museums nearest their origin to make them accessible to the local communities in areas from which they were removed. As part of this project, perishables specialist Laurie Webster worked with BLM archaeologist Diana Barg to identify and interpret 4,518 perishable artifacts.

June 17, 4 pm MDT, Zoom Webinar: Chacoan Successors: Religious Specialists, Exotic Exchange Networks, and the Rise of Aztec and Wupatki by Dr. Erina Gruner. Sponsored by the Hisatsinom Chapter of the Colorado Archaeological Society and the Crow Canyon Archaeological Center. Dr. Gruner shares recent research into the exchange of Chacoan religious objects within the pan-southwestern networks that exchanged exotic materials such as shell, parrots, and precious stone. She discusses how the migration of Chacoan religious specialists into allied peripheral centers during the late Chacoan period shifted the balance of power in the southwest, allowing the rise of rival polities: Aztec in the Middle San Juan region, and Wupatki Pueblo in the Flagstaff area. Note: This event will only be available during the livestream - it will not be posted to YouTube for later viewing.

June 24, 4 pm, MDT, Zoom Webinar: Star Stories: Mesa Verde’s Dark Skies with Spencer Burke, sponsored by the Four Corners Lecture Series, Mesa Verde National Park, and the Crow Canyon Archaeological Center. Mesa Verde’s exceptional dark skies are an integral piece of the park’s cultural landscape and a growing draw for visitors to the region. Join Park Ranger Spencer Burke to learn more about Mesa Verde’s years-long certification efforts, what it means to be a Dark Sky Park, and why we should all care about preserving dark skies over the Four Corners region. The webinar is suitable for lifelong learners from high school students to adults.

ONLINE MASTER CLASSES FROM UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Archaeological Evidence for Daily Life in the Ancient Greek and Roman Worlds

July 5, 7, 9, 12, 14, 10-11:30 am (Arizona time)
A 5-part series taught by Dr. Irene Bald Romano, Curator of Mediterranean Archaeology, Arizona State Museum; Professor of Anthropology, School of Anthropology; Professor of Art History, School of Art

This course focuses on the information about aspects of everyday life of the ancient Greeks and Romans that can be gleaned from archaeological evidence, as opposed to or in combination with written sources, and the various methodologies of the discipline of archaeology that allow us to reconstruct much of the daily lives of ancient Greek and Roman peoples. Topics to be considered are: the lives of men, women, children, slaves and artisans; houses and home life; food and drink; partying and leisure activities.

July 5: General introduction to the Greek and Roman worlds: Geography, Chronology, History, and Nature of the Archaeological Evidence
July 7: Life of Men: Hunters, Soldiers, Doctors, Bakers, Politicians
July 9: Life of Women and Children
July 12: Lives of Slaves, Artisans, and Craftsmen

July 14: Greek and Roman Houses and Gardens, Food, Dining, and Entertainment

Cost: $100 ASM members, $150 non members. Amount paid over $50 is a tax-deductible gift.
Proceeds support Dr. Romano’s research projects.
Cancellation/refund possible up to the day before the first class. Credit card payments incur a 3% fee.

Clovis to Kino: Archaeology of the Southwest Borderlands

Sept. 8, 15, 22, 29, 10:00-11:30 am Arizona time, via Zoom
A four-part series taught by Dr. James T. Watson, ASM Associate Director and Curator of Bioarchaeology

The desert Borderlands of the southwest US and northwest Mexico present a foreboding but ecologically diverse environment that supported human occupation as far back as the earliest Americans and led to the development of large precolonial civilizations characterized by some of the most complex irrigation systems in the New World. Today this area is substantially defined by the political border between Mexico and the United States. This class critically explores evidence from the archaeological record of the Border-lands to document human migrations and interactions, and behavioral and technological adaptations to thrive in this dynamic environment for centuries.

Session 1: Clovis to Cultigens
Session 2: Cultigens to the Classic Period
Session 3: Classic Period to Collapse
Session 4: Collapse to Kino

Cost: $80 ASM members or $130 non members. Amount paid over $40 is a tax-deductible gift
Proceeds support Dr. Watson's research projects.
Cancellation/refund possible up to the day before the first class. Credit card payments incur a 3% fee.

OBJECTIVES of the AAS:
• To foster interest and research in the archaeology of Arizona
• To encourage better public understanding and concern for archaeological and cultural resources
• To protect antiquities by discouraging exploitation of archaeological resources
• To aid in the conservation and preservation of scientific and archaeological data and associated sites
• To serve as a bond between the professionals and the avocational non-professionals
• To increase the knowledge and improve the skill of members in the discipline of archaeology
• To participate in investigations in the field of archaeology and to put the information so obtained into published form
• To publish a journal and such monographs as the publications committee deems appropriate
