 FROM THE CHAIR

Usually I try to make my comments as impersonal as possible, but this month it has been very difficult to get the Petroglyph finished. February got off to a rocky start when a Microsoft Windows 10 Update completely wiped out my desktop computer. My old and rarely used laptop computer was barely capable of running Zoom, so I bought a very nice new laptop with Windows 10 installed and decided to go ahead and try Microsoft 365. Although it looks like Microsoft’s previous office suite, there are many subtle changes that keep impeding my progress! I can only hope that you won’t find too many errors.

Thank goodness there weren’t any field trip photos to deal with this month as I haven’t purchased any software to help reduce the photo sizes enough to permit including them in the Petroglyph. Enough about that!

I hope you will have time to enjoy some of the many events listed on pages 8 though 10, both in-person and online.

CHAPTER NEWS

Desert Foothills Chapter

March 9th Zoom Meeting: Our Zoom presentation on Mighty Cahokia: America’s First City will start at 7 pm. This presentation covers the rise, florescence, and demise of Cahokia, which is located in southern Illinois, eight miles east of present-day St Louis. It may have been the largest prehistoric settlement north of Mexico at the time it was occupied. Our speaker, William (Bill) Iseminger, will discuss the significant site features as well as the results of past and current archaeological research at the world-class Interpretive center.

Bill earned his BA in Anthropology at the University of Oklahoma and his MA at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale. His archaeological experience includes projects in South Dakota and in Illinois, including excavations and surveys at Dickson Mounds, Kincaid Creek, and the lower Kaskaskia River Valley. He has worked at Cahokia Mounds since 1971 and for years led public field schools in excavations on the Stockade, Woodhenge, and Mound 50. He recently retired as Assistant Site Manager in charge of exhibits, interpretations, public relations, and intern programs. He has written extensively about Cahokia Mounds and archaeology; his books include Cahokia Mounds: America’s First City and Identifying and Understanding Artifacts of Illinois and Neighboring States.

Special note: Mary Kearney sends out connection information for our Zoom Presentations to chapter members prior to each event. Please watch for this notice; if you do not receive notification, first check your SPAM folder, ensure your email address in chapter records is current, and lastly notify Mary at maryk92@aol.com.

Our chapter’s current commitment to Zoom Meetings continues though March. The current challenges include the Delta variant’s slow demise, full public acceptance of vaccines/boosters, and objections to wearing masks, as well as the rapidly expanding status of the Omicron mutation. Our DFC President is trying to schedule cautiously as well as being flexible for the remaining months of this year. This means balancing quality and often availability for face-to-face versus Zoom meetings each month in a responsible manner.

Chapter Web News: The web address for our chapter website is the best place for finding DFC Chapter news and updates: www.azarchsoc.wildapricot.org/desertfoothills. If you are gone for the summer, taking a vacation anytime, or unable to attend meetings; this is an excellent information source. The chapter website slide show files are back up and running. Please Note: The addition of a Quick Reference Chart for coming Chapter Zoom Meetings. Zoom may remain in the future even with the return of live meetings because it casts a much wider net for long distance speakers that are not otherwise available as an extra benefit.

Classes, Workshops, Special Events and Expanded Field Trips: Mary Kearney is the primary contact for classes, workshops, dedicated events, or trips at maryk92@aol.com and the only place to sign up or get more information. Please remember classes, workshops, and trips are open to current AAS members only with DFC members having priority. There is no registration on the day of the activity and no preregistration for any activity prior to formal announcement. Please Note: There are currently no face-to-face type activities currently due to Covid-19 transmission concerns. Watch for updates on chapter website!

Board Announcement: Covid-19 is still a significant issue, and all in-person normal chapter activities suspended until our safety concerns are resolved itself in a positive and not speculative manner. We are trying to use Zoom as much as possible to ensure a benefit to membership, replacing in-person meetings with virtual Zoom Meetings and other virtual events. Side note: Once you begin using Zoom, you will find that there are many opportunities to expand your knowledge about other states of the Southwest. There are organizations out there with quality presenters/topics and knowledge about this continues to grow. The good news is vaccinations and now boosters are becoming a reality and the percentage of usage continues to climb.

Phoenix Chapter News

March Meeting: Our March 8th Zoom Meeting will feature Christopher Schwartz, Ph.D., who will talk about Long-Distance Trade Relations and Interaction Between the US Southwest, Northwest Mexico, and Mesoamerica. Exchange is a fundamental human behavior. In the past long-distance exchange required the mobilization of vast networks of interaction. Vibrantly colored scarlet macaws, which are native to the Gulf coast of Mexico and Central and South America, are the most engaging and challenging objects to have been transported through these networks over hundreds of miles. This talk explores the long-distance acquisition, circulation, and use of scarlet macaws in the pre-Hispanic U.S. Southwest and Mexican Northwest, including the reasons for procuring these multifaceted animals, their significance in processes of placemaking and widespread social transformations, and their continued importance to descendant communities.

Christopher Schwartz is a Lecturer in the Department of Anthropology at NAU. He received an M.A. from ASU in 1975 and a Ph.D. from ASU in 2020. He is an anthropological archaeologist who works on field and collections-based projects in the US Southwest and Mexico. His research focuses on long-distance exchange and interaction between the US Southwest/Mexican Northwest and Mesoamerica, how past humans interacted with animals, and archaeological applications of isotopic analyses.

February meeting: The speaker for our Feb. 8th Zoom meeting was Barbara L. Stark, PhD, who talked about King Cotton: It's History in Ancient Mesoamerica. She explained that the cotton grown in the southwest was domesticated in Mesoamerica around 2000 BC, long before it was grown by the Hohokam. (Although cotton pollen has been found in the southwest around 1000 BC, it did not become widely grown until about 700 AD.) Cotton requires a hot climate, plenty of water and good soils, and could not be grown in the cool, dry highlands. The Gulf coast of Mesoamerica was one area where cotton and the cotton textile craft flourished. While cotton is perishable, cotton and cloth production can be studied indirectly by studying the spindle whorls used to hand-spin cotton. Comparing the frequencies of spindle whorls though time shows a steady increase in cotton production in the Papaloapan region of Veracruz. Excavated data as well as ethnohistoric documentation on the trade and tribute of the Aztec Empire shows that both raw cotton and textiles were exchanged with the highland regions and were vitally important products.

Upcoming Meetings:
April 12: Aaron Wright, Archaeology Southwest, Hohokam, Patayan, or ?” - Unmixing the Archaeology of the Lower Gila River

May 10: TBD
Sept 13: In-person meeting at Pueblo Grande Museum!!

Field Trips: Although the Phoenix Chapter has not organized any field trips since the pandemic began, the Rim Country and San Tan chapters have been quite active and several of our chapter members have joined them on their field trips. Six of our members were lucky to get in on their recent Tonto Basin field trip to Cline Terrace, Rye Creek Ruin, and Headless Dog Ruin.

Rim Country Chapter and San Tan Chapter

Upcoming March and April Events:

March 9 Field Trip to Historic Pinal City: Pinal City is a historic mining town north of Superior, Arizona. The tour will include Mattie Earp’s grave and a hike along the original Route 60 north of Superior. We will meet at the Boyce Thompson Arboretum parking lot just east of Superior early morning. It is just a short ride... from there to Pinal City. We will need to limit those going to 12 cars, so carpool if at all possible. First we will tour the ruins of Pinal City, then John Dawley will take us on a hike up the old route 60 (2 miles). We will visit the Bob Jones Museum in Superior (admission is a donation) and make a quick stop at what is left of Mattie Earp’s grave. Pinal City has 7 points of interest left to visit and the trail is fairly easy but bring your walking stick if you use one. The old Route 60 is pavement. No other hiking is involved. Bring plenty of water and a sack lunch. We should be gone about 5 hours. AAS Members can sign up by emailing Marie Renner at mamare11@yahoo.com.

March 19th Field Trip to Pueblo La Plata with Guided Tour: Retired Tonto National Forest archaeologist Scott Wood will again lead an interesting field trip to an area he has worked in for many years: Perry Mesa within Agua Fria National Monument. We will visit the La Plata Ruin, and possibly one or two additional Perry Mesa sites. We’ll meet on the Bloody Basin road just off I-17 about an hour north of Phoenix. Stay tuned for an emailed message with important details. This trip is open to members of the RCC, San Tan, and Phoenix chapters, and will be limited to 24 participants.

March 26th San Tan Chapter Mini-Expo Invitation to Arizona Archaeology: The San Tan Chapter is putting on a Mini-Expo on the grounds of the San Tan Historical Society Museum at 20425 Old Ellsworth Rd, Queen Creek from 10am to 2pm. Check out our webpage: azarchsoc.org/santan. Join us for activities and demonstrations about prehistoric and historic Arizona. The San Tan Chapter will not hold their usual zoom meeting in March in order to prepare for the Mini-Expo.

April 13th 6:30 pm (new time): In person Meeting, first in over a year! Ken Zoll, Executive Director of the Verde Valley Archaeology Center in Camp Verde, will present Star Wounds: Meteorites from Ancient Native America. Ken Zoll is the author of several books on petroglyphs and archaeoastronomy, the V Bar V panels in particular. He is currently studying many such sites in the Verde Valley and elsewhere.

April 6th Field Trip to the Upper Ruin of Tonto National Monument: Most visitors to Tonto National Monument visit only the Lower Ruin because the Upper Ruin requires a ranger guided tour reserved far in advance. This Field Trip is such a tour of this Cliff Dwelling, limited by the Monument to 8 hikers. The round trip hike takes 3 to 4 hours with a 600 foot elevation gain. The Upper Ruin is about twice the size of the Lower Ruin, about 40 rooms.

April 23rd Field Trip to Prehistoric Payson & Pine Ruins in Two Gated Communities: Dale Bellisfield will guide this tour of two gated community sites, one in Payson and one in Pine. The Chaparral Pines site, contemporay with Goat Camp, includes a 12-room residential site with two plazas. Tree ring dates put the last site activity around 1280 AD, about when the general abandonment of the Payson area was in process. The Portal IV site has a stunning view of the Mogollon Rim to the north. It consists of a walled compound surrounding a three-room structure. It was initially thought to be a hilltop fortification, but evidence does not support that, nor that it was a habitation or a signal tower. Recent thought suggests possibly a hilltop ritual enclosure. It is believed that the site was built between 800–1100 AD with radiocarbon dates found between 1020–1224 AD.

Recent Activities:

Feb. 9th Talk: Dr. Patricia Crown, Professor of Anthropology at the University of New Mexico, gave us a fascinating and information-rich live Zoom Video Presentation on The House of the Cylinder Jars: Room 28 in Pueblo Bonito, Chaco Canyon. The photos and narrative of the re-excavation of a room made for a you-are-there feeling of the discoveries.

Feb.19th Saturday Field Trip to the Tonto Basin: Scott Wood led us to three intriguing Hohokam and Salado sites in the Tonto Basin area: Headless Dog, Rye Creek, and the Cline Terrace platform-mound site. The trip was organized by Rim Country Chapter Board Member Brent Reed.

Verde Valley Chapter

March Archaeology Month Special Presentation Event: As most of you know, March is Women's History Month & Archaeology Month. The Verde Valley Chapter will host a very special presentation at Mary Fisher Theatre on Sunday, March 20, at 1 pm. Tickets will be sold through Mary Fisher Theatre. A notice will be sent when they go on sale. Kelley Hays-Gilpin, PhD, will present A Colorful Century of Women in Southwestern Archaeology with a focus on Ann Axtell Morris. The February issue of Arizona Highways also has an interesting article about Dr. Kelley Hays-Gilpin and Ann Axtell Morris: An Artist in the Canyon of Death.

Kelley Hays-Gilpin is Professor and Chair of Anthropology at NAU, and Curator of Anthropology at the MNA. She holds a PhD in Anthropology from the University of Arizona, and has nearly 30 years of experience studying rock art, pottery, and other visual arts in the Southwest. She has written numerous articles and books, including Ambiguous Images: Gender and Rock Art, which won the 2005 Society for American Archaeology book award. She co-edited Painting the Cosmos: Metaphor and Worldview in Images from the Southwest and Pueblos and Mexico (MNA Bulletin 67), with rock art specialist Polly Schaffsma, and co-edited Belief in the Past: Theoretical Approaches to the Archaeology of Religion with David S. Whitley. Her current research focuses on the long-term histories of Hopi and Zuni communities and their relationships with land and water through production of visual arts. She is investigating culturally appropriate museum curation techniques in collaboration with Hopi and Zuni scholars, and planning new exhibits for MNA’s archaeology and ethnology galleries in partnership with Native American scholars and archaeologists.

Day Trip Reminder: Saturday, March 19, Scott Newth will lead a tour of Red Tank Draw. Limit is 12 people. Bring a lunch. Open to all AAS members. Please sign up by March 17 at aplacetinthesun@commspeed.net.

Yavapai Chapter
The Yavapai Chapter is sponsoring a field trip to Tucson March 10 & 11:
March 10, Thursday, University of Arizona Campus:
Meet at Arizona State Museum entrance at 10 am. The fee will be $6 or $10 depending upon whether we have a docent. The closest public parking is in the lot at Euclid and 2nd; parking seems to be $2/hour, but unclear if this remains true during Spring Break, which is when we will be there). Masks are required in all university buildings and anywhere where you cannot maintain safe distance.
Lunch on or near campus
2 or 2:30 pm: walk to Tree-ring lab for behind-the-scenes tour by Jeff Dean
Group Dinner? (TBA)
March 11th, Friday: University Indian Ruin in east Tucson
9-9:30am meet at University Indian Ruin (UIR) and get tour by Paul and Suzy Fish (directions to be provided).
After UIR you are on your own; Andy will provide a list of publicly accessible sites you can visit.
Note: There is a $25 fee to the Yavapai Chapter to go on this field trip and you must be a paid-up AAS member. Limited to 15 people. Contact Andy at alchristenson86303@gmail.com for more info.
On Your Own in Tucson
March 12-13, Saturday and Sunday is the Tucson Festival of Books on campus where up to 275 authors will be signing their books and giving talks; there will also be a large archaeology/anthropology book sale in front of the State Museum and the State Museum will also be having a sale of donated ethnographic arts. Use your own judgement about attending.
